PROFFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Risekit

Full-Stack Software Engineer - June 2022 - Oct-2025

- Built a guided user-profile walkthrough that reduced incomplete profiles and inconsistent data by 80%, improving data quality across the platform.
- Developed a third-party integration for a key enterprise partner, enabling reliable data tracking and two-way communication with external systems, supporting contract delivery and improving operational efficiency.
- Modernized the frontend by replacing legacy CSS with Tailwind and building a reusable component system, cutting future feature development time by 50% and improving UI consistency across the app.
- Built a new admin dashboard with tables, modals, and filtering tools, reducing admin task time and enabling accurate, centralized tracking of user objectives.
- Worked closely with product and design to rapidly scope and ship features, consistently delivering production releases every sprint in a fast-paced startup environment.
- Improved GraphQL and REST API performance through query optimization and caching, and reduced production bugs by strengthening RSpec, Jest, and integration test coverage.
